The Home Depot Center is not just a soccer field. It is one of the biggest athletic complexes in the United States. It houses the home field of the Galaxy as well as a 13,000 seat tennis stadium and a track and field complex that is expected to seat 20,000. There are also numerous tennis courts and soccer training pitches.

The soccer stadium is the most unique in the U.S. because of the European style roof

There is also a restaurant that can hold approximately 300 people at the south end of the pitch, as well as two levels of luxury boxes on the west side of the pitch.
